A GREEN ECONOMY NEEDS FORESTRY

Future Forests Fiji

Scientific Forestry Services Ltd

Green Generation Limited

Paul Evers
U.S. Forests Have Increased 40% in 50 Years

- Hardwoods and Softwoods
- Billions of Cubic Feet

Year:
- 1950
- 1960
- 1970
- 1980
- 1990
- 2000
Chart Notes
Source International Tropical Timber Organization (www.itto.or.jp), FAO (www.fao.org) and UTMG analysis
Drop in deforested Teak price is related to political situation in Myanmar and international deforestation laws
Plantation Teak prices steadily increased the last five years with projected long term annual growth of 5.5% to 7%
FIG. 3: PROJECTED PRICE VARIATION
TEAK LOGS OF DIFFERENT AGES

US DOLLARS PER CUBIC METER AT ROADSIDE

25 YEARS
20 YEARS
15 YEARS
10 YEARS

JC CENTENO: July 16, 1996

Teak Projections
5% annual price increase

Year

Squared Logs Price $ per square meter

International Tropical Timber Organization
The World’s Population in 2000, by Latitude

(horizontal axis shows the sum of all population at each degree of latitude)
Vinaka and Thank you